

A Quarter-Century Long Review (1981-Present)

Bulleted Facts on Maya:

- Maya is an extraordinary spiritual leader, teacher, nurturer, and healer who is recognized as “one of the outstanding saint of India” by the Parliament of the World’s Religions.
- Maya appeared alongside the Dalia Lama in a magnificent Keynote Address she gave to the Convocation of Saints from India at the Parliament of the World’s Religions, which occurred December 2009 in Melbourne, Australia.
- Having served more than a quarter century as a Vedic Monk belonging to India’s prestigious Veda Vyasa lineage, (where she was initiated by His Holiness, Sri Swami Dayananda Sarasvati), Maya has made the stunning decision to renounce her monastic title and spiritual moniker—Her Holiness, Sri Swami Mayatitananda—and, as she puts it, “walk a simpler and more accessible life in service of the populations in need.”
- In 2011, she received both the prestigious Dhanvantari International Award and the Rishi Award from India for her pioneering work and services in Ayurveda education.
- A survivor of ovarian cancer (and a terminal diagnosis) at the tender age of 23, Maya is living proof that a life of inner harmony is the greatest investment we can achieve in our lives.
- Maya’s time-tested ability to inspire and create change in human behavior and understanding is a matter of flawless record from the past 30 years of her devout work in the US.
- Maya is the founder of the non-profit organization, Wise Earth School of Ayurveda—the first school for Ayurveda in North America, established in 1981. In her 30-year tenure at Wise Earth School, she has trained hundreds of Ayurveda practitioners and instructors worldwide. www.wisearth.org
- In her quarter-century long service to humanity, Maya has helped hundreds of thousands of people heal from devastating diseases and disorders.
- She is the founder of Mother Om Mission (MOM), a charitable organization in the US and Guyana, SA that serves and teaches Inner Medicine healing education to at-risk communities. www.motherom.org
- For the past 12 years at MOM, Maya has been working in the trenches to transform poverty, despair, and violence into harmony, health and prosperity. MOM has achieved astounding results with the education of Inner Medicine healing.
- As a world-class spiritual teacher and peace activist, Maya is the founder of the Living Ahimsa Foundation. She is the originator of Living

Ahimsa: The Power of Peace—a program where she introduces the extraordinary practice of The Vow of Ahimsa for the imperative awakening of individual awareness and global consciousness. www.ahimsalife.com

- On this current Living Ahimsa World Peace Tour 2009-2015, Maya will be guiding hundreds of thousands more participants into the Vow of Ahimsa. Countries confirmed for the Living Ahimsa Tour are the US, Canada, India, Australia, Brazil, Bahamas, UK, Portugal, Singapore, Thailand, Bali, and Africa. More countries will be added as the tour gains momentum.
- She is a pre-eminent speaker at more than 100 world conferences (wellness and inter-faith) such as the Global Peace Congress of Women's Spiritual Leaders in Geneva, Switzerland; UN Millennium Peace Summit in New York, US and at the Parliament of the World's Religions in Melbourne, Australia in December 2009 where Maya appeared as an honorary member of the Convocation of Saints from India.
- In her early years, Maya was a world-acclaimed, high fashion designer in New York City with a posh Madison Avenue boutique, a slew of celebrity clients, and whose designs were featured in almost every major Department Store in USA.
- Maya Tiwari is the best-selling author of Women's Power to Heal through Inner Medicine; Ayurveda: A Life of Balance; Ayurveda: Secrets of Healing; The Path of Practice; and Living Ahimsa Diet: Nourishing Love & Life. Love, just Love! A Daily Healing Oracle, is soon to be released. Her books are produced in more than 12 languages. www.motherommedia.com

For more information on Maya's extraordinary life and work ~ go to www.mayatiwari.org